A Horse Of My Very Own™

A woman with long blonde hair, wearing a light blue polo shirt and tan riding pants, is smiling and looking at a large white horse with brown spots. The horse is wearing a brown leather halter with a chain. The background is a lush green outdoor setting with trees and flowers.

Customizing Your Breyer Models

All you need is a Breyer model, acrylic paints and your imagination!

Is your dream horse a golden palomino or a spotted appaloosa? Is she a strawberry roan or a stunning dapple grey? All of these colors are possible with the paints and full color instructions in our painting kits. Each kit includes white, black, yellow ochre, burnt umber and burnt sienna so that the rainbow of horse colors is possible! Acrylics are water soluble, so clean up is easy too.

You can also add Mohair Manes and Tails and Horseshoes for an even more realistic effect!

Words in a Name?

Just brought home the addition to your stable! The big question: what will her name be?

Names are inspired by color, a black horse could have words like Ebony, Raven, Shadow or its name. Use a thesaurus to find uncommon words: Zephyr and Sirocco are different types of wind. A horse's origins might inspire you: a British Shire might be named Winston, Big Ben or Manchester. A mustang's name might reflect its wild surroundings or Spanish ancestry: Sagebrush, Thunderbolt, or Rojo. The possibilities are endless! Keep a list of names you like for easy reference later!
